THE ART OF FIGHTING HUNGER
DEAR FRIENDS,

As I write my first annual report message as the Chief Executive Officer of the Westmoreland County Food Bank, I must share what an incredibly humbling and awe-inspiring experience it has been thus far. After being at the Food Bank for the past 14 years as the Director of Development, it is different looking at it all from this angle. I always knew that we had an amazing Food Bank Team as well as a dedicated and supportive Board of Directors but I did not realize its impact until now. For the cooperation, collaboration and encouragement that I have received from the entire Team and Board of Directors I thank you and look forward to a better and brighter future in helping to end food insecurity here in Westmoreland County.

We thank you, our generous supporters, for your help that assisted us in distributing over 6 million pounds of food, which included nearly 2 million pounds of fresh fruits and vegetables to people struggling with hunger throughout Westmoreland County. Through our 63 partner agencies and programs over 31,000 children, adults and seniors were served in 2018. Our work and service to the community is made possible because of the generous support of donors and volunteers.

The Food Bank uses its resources efficiently and leverages more than 6,000 volunteers each year so the 95 percent of total charitable contributions and other revenues go directly to programs. With continued growth, the Food Bank remains in a healthy financial position.

This past year, however saw its vicissitudes as we experienced what we called “the week of fire and ice.” Unfortunately, we lost one of our trucks to a fire in June and that same week we held the ribbon cutting for our brand new walk-in freezer that was obtained through generous donations from UPMC Health Plan, PNC Bank and First National Bank via Neighborhood Assistance Program Tax Credits. Both instances showed the true compassion, dedication and generosity of our community. As apparent with the freezer, three major Westmoreland County affiliated businesses stepped up to make a necessary replacement of our aging freezer a reality. Now, with the replacement of the truck and the food that was lost in it, we have also felt the benevolence of our giving community. Businesses came forward to do food and fund drives, financial donors have made substantial gifts to help offset the cost of replacing such a vital piece in the puzzle to deliver nutritious food to those in need in our community.

Thousands of lives are better today because of the incredible gifts so many people made to the Food Bank in 2018. Thank you never seems to be enough for all of the sacrifices that people make to ensure that no child has to know the anguish of hunger. On behalf of the Board of Directors, the Food Bank Team and all who benefit from your generosity, thank you a million times over. Today, more than ever before, I am confident that with your continued support, we can end food insecurity here at home.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Miller
Chief Executive Officer

AS YOU WILL SEE IN THIS YEAR’S REPORT, thousands of volunteers and hundred of organizations have donated countless hours and resources to painstakingly craft a different picture for the thousands of families we support each year to ease food insecurity.

What we’ve created combines the form and function of an efficiently run, fiscally sound, strategically driven organization with the passion, purpose and inspiration of fine artists at work.

Each contributor has added indelible brushstrokes to our tableau; original, impactful, permanent swaths of color, imagination and hope that mean so much to families in need.

And while even one family remains hungry, our work at this easel will continue—filled with purpose, driven by love—until we have eliminated hunger in Westmoreland County.
